STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Act 3 of 1961.- The Government of India enacted a law in the year 1951, called the Evacuee Interest (Separation) Act. Since the provisions of the Act seemed to attract the provisions of entries 18 and 30 of List II of the Seventh Schedule to the Constitution of India, at the suggestion of the Government of India, supplementary legislation declaring that the Central Act in so far as it relates to any matter enumerated in List II of the Seventh Schedule shall be valid and binding as if it had been passed by the State Legislature, were passed by the Legislatures of the States in India.

2. The Evacuee Interest (Separation) Amendment Act, 1960, amending section 6 of the Evacuee Interest (Separation) Act, 1951 has been passed by Parliament, for the purpose of fixing a time limit for filing applications for the separation of evacuee interest from composite properties.
3. As some of the claims may relate to matters in the State List (List II) and in order to make the amendments effective in the State in so far as they relate to matters in the State List, the Government of India suggested that supplementary legislation may be enacted by the State Legislature. As the Legislature was not in session, an Ordinance was promulgated. The Act is intended to replace the Ordinance.
