SCHEDULE B.

RULES FOR THE ADJUDICATION OF TITLES TO ESTATES CLAIMED AS INAM OR EXEMPT FROM PAYMENT OF LAND-REVENUE.

1. All lands held under a specific and absolute declaration by the British Government, or any competent officer acting under it, that they were to be continued hereditarily or in perpetuity exempt, wholly or partially, from the payment of revenue, are to be so continued according to the purport of such declaration.

² The words "the Provincial Government" were substituted for the words "the Governor of Bombay in Council", ibid.

Continuance of inams already declared permanent.

Provision 1st.—If any question shall arise as to the competency of the officer to make or give such declaration as aforesaid, the Commissioner or Assistant Commissioner is to suspend his judgment, and report the circumstances of the case to ^{Disposal of question as to competency to make declaration.} ¹[the Provincial Government], to ²[which] a power is hereby reserved of determining finally whether such officer was competent to make or give such declaration, and the Commissioner or Assistant Commissioner, upon receiving the determination of ¹[the Provincial Government], shall decide accordingly.

2. Any land held under a sanad declaring it to be hereditary shall be so continued according to the terms of the sanad. ^{Continuance of holding under sanad declaring it hereditary, where granted by competent authority ;}

Provision 1st.—Provided that the grant was either made, or specifically recognised, by authority competent to alienate Government revenue in perpetuity, the question of which recognition and competency is to be referred to and determined ^{by competent authority ;} ²[by the Provincial Government] in the manner prescribed by provision 1st, rule 1.

Provision 2nd.—And provided that there be nothing in the conditions of the tenure which cannot be observed without a breach of the laws of the land, or the rules of public decency. ^{and conditions of tenure legally observable ;}

Provision 3rd.—And provided that the grant was not afterwards revoked or disallowed, or an alteration of its terms ordered or recognized by a competent authority. ^{and grant not revoked, disallowed or altered.}

3. All lands uninterruptedly held as wholly or partially exempt from assessment for a period of sixty years before the introduction of the British Government, and then in the authorized possession of a grandson in male descent or male heir of the body of such grandson, of the original grantee, shall continue to be so held so long as there shall be in existence any male heir of the body of the person who was incumbent at the introduction of the British Government, tracing his lineage from such incumbent through male heirs only. ^{Continuance of holdings exempt or partially exempt for sixty years before British rule.}

4. All lands uninterruptedly held as wholly or partially exempt from assessment for a period of forty years before the introduction of the British Government, and then in the authorized possession of a son, or male heir of the body of a son, of the original grantee, are to be continued for one succession further than that of the person who was incumbent at the introduction of the British Government, that is, until the death of his last surviving son. ^{Continuance of holdings so exempt for forty years.}

Provision 1st.—The authorized possession contemplated by rules 3 and 4 does not involve the necessity of proving any specific authority from, or recognition by, the Government or paramount Power. The mere entry of the holding, as continued in the genuine accounts of the district-officers (even in those not audited and passed by the Government of the time being), will be sufficient to bring it under the heads of "uninterrupted" and "authorized" so far as regards the purposes of this rule : Provided only that there are no entries in the Collectorate-accounts which show that the holding of such lands exempt as aforesaid must have been unauthorized by the Government or paramount Power. ^{Authorized possession how proved.}

Prescriptive right of claimant when admissible.

Provision 2nd.—If there be no evidence forthcoming to disprove a claimant's assertion that his holding has been undisputedly enjoyed for the number of years and descents requisite to fulfil the conditions of rules 3 and 4 respectively, his prescriptive right shall be admitted.

Introduction of British Government when to date—in territories late of Peshwa.

Provision 3rd.—The introduction of the British Government is to be reckoned from the time the East India Company became the Government or paramount authority over each district as regards its inams. In the territories ceded by or conquered from the Peshwa, therefore, whether khalsat mahals or saranjams, etc., held exclusive of inams, etc., the introduction of the British Government will date from the close of that of the Peshwa.

independent principality or jagir more ancient than Peshwa's government.

But in case of the lapse of an independent principality, or of a jagir more ancient than the Peshwa's government, and over the inams of which he did not claim any authority, the introduction of the British Government should be reckoned only from the date at which the general management of the districts may have come into the hands of the Company :

Disposal of question as to date of East India Company acquiring Government.

and in case any question shall arise as to the precise date when the East India Company become the Government over any district, or when the general management of any district came into their hands, such question shall be referred to and determined ¹[by the Provincial Government] in the manner prescribed by provision 1st, rule 1.

Land resumable on demise of incumbent.

*6. Land held as wholly exempt from payment of revenue, or on partial assessment, the possession of which is not continuable under the preceding rules, is to be resumed on the demise of the incumbent.

Extension of life tenure of holding of which incumbent died before British rule.

Provision 1st.—In case the incumbent at the time of the introduction of the British Government may have died, the permission to hold for life is to be extended to the person in whose name the land may be continued, when the investigation is commenced, if there be no fraud apparent, nor other reason for withholding this indulgence.

Resumption of land held by fraud.

Provision 2nd.—When land is evidently held by fraud recently committed (as when an inam which was resumed under the late Government has been re-occupied under the present Government without authority, or as when a pretended inam is found to have originated since the introduction of this Government with the connivance of district or village-officers), it shall be at once resumed, not being continuable under this or any of the preceding rules.

Continuance of holdings for support of mosques, temples, etc.

7. All lands held for the support of mosques, temples or similar institutions, of the permanent character of which there can be no doubt, are to be continued permanently, even though their permanent continuance may not have been expressly provided for when they were granted.

Corresponding provisions of rule 2 applied.

Provisions 1st, 2nd and 3rd.—The same as the corresponding provisions of rule 2 of this Schedule in those cases in which title-deeds or other records proving the circumstances of the original grant, or its specific recognition by competent authority, are forthcoming.

² There is no rule numbered 6.

Provision 4th.—When there is no proof forthcoming to show whether or not an inam, coming under the provisions of this rule, was granted, or even specifically recognized, by a competent authority, still, if it has been undisputedly enjoyed for a period of forty years before the introduction of the present Government, it shall be permanently continued, and enjoyment proved by the mere entry of the inam, as continued in genuine accounts of the district-officers (even in those not passed by the Government of the time being), is to be considered sufficiently “un-interrupted” to give an inam the benefit of this provision, if there be no entries in the Government accounts which show that it must have been unauthorized by them.

Effect of enjoyment for forty years where no proof of grant forthcoming.

Provision 5th.—If the forthcoming records do not go far enough back to test the existence of enjoyment of the duration contemplated in provision 4th as establishing full prescriptive title in suchinams, still, if so far as they do go, they are not opposed to the claimant's assertion that sufficient enjoyment has taken place, the prescriptive title of the inam shall be admitted according to his assertions, unless there be other evidence forthcoming to disprove them.

Prescriptive title when admissible where records do not go back enough to test enjoyment for forty years.

Provision 6th.—The peculiar advantages of this rule shall not apply to the holdings of individuals in their own names for the performance of ceremonial worship, claims to which must be decided under the rules for personal claims.

Rule where not applicable.

Provision 7th.—When claims of the denomination coming under this rule are found to be unsupported by proof of original valid title and are proved void of sufficient prescriptive enjoyment, they are to be adjudicated according to rule 6.

Adjudication of certain claims coming under rule.

8. All lands authorizedly held by an official tenure which it is evident from local usage was meant to be hereditary, and has been so considered heretofore even though there be no sanads declaring it to be so,—for instance, inams which form the authorized emoluments of any hereditary office, as of kazis, village joshis, etc., and are not merely personal,—are to be continued permanently.

Continuance of holdings by official tenure meant to be hereditary.

Provisions 1st, 2nd and 3rd.—The same as the corresponding provisions of rule 2 of this Schedule in those cases in which title-deeds or other records, proving the circumstances of the original grant, or its specific recognition by competent authority, are forthcoming.

Corresponding provision of rule 2 applied.

Provision 4th.—When there is no proof forthcoming to show whether or not an inam, coming under the provisions of this rule, was granted or even specifically recognised by competent authority, still, if it has been undisputedly enjoyed as an official, and not merely personal, holding from the earliest period to which the forthcoming evidence does relate, it shall be continued permanently as official emolument, unless the claimant's own statement renders this course improper.

Continuance of inam enjoyed as official holding during period covered by evidence though grant or recognition not proved.

Provision 5th.—The provisions of this rule are not in any way to apply to emoluments continued for service performed to the State, as the service watans of desais, sardesais, nadgaudas, deshpaudes, patels, kulkarnis, mahars, talavaras, whose claims are to be disposed of according to the rules which are or may be established for the regulation of such holdings.

Exemption from rule of emoluments for certain services to State.

Length of enjoyment by itself does not entitle to benefit of rule. Provision 6th.—It is to be understood that mere length of enjoyment of land as inam by an official person is not of itself sufficient to entitle a claim to be brought under this rule.

Benefit of preceding rules when allowable. Provision 7th.—If a holding claimed under this rule be found incapable of permanent continuance under it, the claimant shall be allowed the advantages of any of the preceding rules of this Schedule which may be applicable to his case.

Provision for widows of last incumbents of resumed holdings. 9. On the resumption of any lands under the rules of this Schedule, a moiety or other portion may be continued to the widows of the last incumbents during their lives, in cases of proved poverty and destitution.

Continuance to widow and sole heir of holder of hereditary personal inam. Provision 1st.—In the case of a holding which is recognizable as an hereditary personal inam, the widow of a proprietor who dies without surviving male issue, or other heirs, to whom his inam will of necessity descend, is by right his sole heir, and during her life the inam cannot be regarded as having lapsed to ¹[the Crown]: it should, therefore, in such a case, be continued undiminished during the widow's life.

Exception of certain tenures from application of rules. 10. These rules shall not be necessarily applicable to jagirs, saranjams, or other tenures for service to ¹[the Crown], or tenures of a political nature, the titles and continuance of which shall be determined as heretofore under such rules as ²[the Provincial Government] may find it necessary to issue from time to time.

Modification in favour of claimants and interpretation of rules. 11. Any of these rules may be relaxed in favour of claimants under instructions from ³[the Provincial Government], in ⁴[which] shall also be vested the power of interpreting the precise meaning of any of the rules respecting which a question may arise.
