CHAPTER II

Registration of Co-operative Societies

3.Registrar.-(1) The Government may appoint a person to be the Registrar of Co-operative Societies for the State.

(2)The Government may by general or special order confer any person all or any of the powers of the Registrar under this Act.

4.Societies which may be registered.—Subject to the provisions of this Act a co-operative society which has as its object the promotion of the economic interests of its members or of the interests of the public in accordance with co-operative principles, or a society established with the object of facilitating the operations of such a society, may be registered under this Act.

5.Registration with limited liability only.—(1) A co-operative society shall be registered only with limited liability:

Provided that this sub-section will not affect the rights and liabilities of societies with unlimited liability which are in existence at the time of commencement of this Act.

(2)The word ‘limited’ or its equivalent in any Indian language shall be the last word in the name of a society registered under this Act with limited liability.

6.Application for registration of co-operative societies.—(1) An application for the registration of a co-operative society shall be made to the Registrar in such form as may be prescribed and the applicant shall furnish to him such information about the society as he may require.

(2)Every such application shall conform to the following requirements, namely:-

(a)the application shall be accompanied by three copies of the proposed bye-laws of the society;

(b)where all the applicants are individuals, the number of applicants shall not be less than twenty-five, each of such person being a member of a different family.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this clause, the expression “member of a family” means wife, husband, father, mother, grand-father, grand-mother, step-father, step-mother, son, daughter, step-son, step-daughter, grand-son, grand-daughter, brother; sister, half-brother, half-sister and wife of brother or half-brother;

(c)the application shall be signed by every one of the applicants who is an individual and by a person duly authorized on behalf of the Government or any society or other body of person which is an applicant.

7.Registration.—(1) If the Registrar is satisfied—

(a)that the application complies with the provisions of this Act and the rules;

(b)that the objects of the proposed society are in accordance with section 4;

(c)that the area of operation of the proposed society and the area of operation of another society of similar type do not overlap;

(d)that the proposed bye-laws are not contrary to the provisions of this Act and the rules; and

(e)that the proposed society complies with the requirements of sound business, he may register the society and its bye-laws [\[20\]](#) [“within a period of ninety days of receipt of application”]

(2)Where the Registrar refuses to register a society, he shall communicate the order of refusal together with the reasons therefore within seven days of such order to such of the applicants as may be prescribed.

(3)An application for registration of a society shall be disposed of by the Registrar [\[21\]](#) [within ninety days] from the date of receipt of the application.

[\[22\]](#) [“(4) Where an application for registration of a society is not disposed of within the time specified in sub-section (3), the applicant may make a representation,—

(a)before the Registrar, if the application for registration is made to a person on whom the powers of the Registrar is conferred under sub-section (2) of section 3; or

(b)before the Government, if the application for registration is made before Registrar, and the Registrar or the Government, as the case may be, shall, within sixty days from the date of receipt of such representation, issue directions to the authority concerned to take appropriate decision on the application for registration and the authority concerned shall comply with such directions.”.]

8. Registration certificate.—Where a co-operative society is registered under this Act, the Registrar shall issue a certificate of registration signed and sealed by him, which shall be conclusive evidence that the said society is duly registered under this Act.

[23] “8A. Affiliation to apex Society.—(1) Every Primary Co-operative Society or Central Co-operative Society may, within such time and in such manner, as may be prescribed, apply for affiliation to the concerned apex society or Central society, as the case may be.

(2) Where the apex society or central society does not, within sixty days from the date of receipt of the application for affiliation, determine whether such affiliation should be given or not such affiliation shall be deemed to have been given to the applicant society from the date on which the said period of sixty days expires.

(3) When the apex or central society, as the case may be, rejects an application for affiliation under sub-section (1), the aggrieved society may file an appeal before the Registrar against such rejection within thirty days from the date of receipt of the order of rejection and the Registrar shall dispose of the appeal within sixty days from the date of appeal.”]

9. Co-operative societies to be bodies corporate.—The registration of a society shall render it a body corporate by the name under which it is registered, having perpetual succession and a common seal, and with power to hold property, enter into contracts, institute and defend suits and other legal proceedings and to do all things necessary for the purposes for which it was constituted.

10. Change of name of society.—(1) A society may, by an amendment of its bye-laws, change its name.

(2) Where a society changes its name, the Registrar shall enter the new name in the register of co-operative societies in the place of the former name and shall amend the certificate of registration accordingly.

(3) The change of name of a society shall not affect any rights or obligations of the society or render defective any legal proceedings by or against it; and any legal proceedings which might have been continued or commenced by or against the society by its former name may be continued commenced by its new name.

11. Change of liability.— (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act and the rules, a society may, by an amendment of its bye-laws, change the form or extent of its liability.

(2)When a society has passed a resolution to change the form or extent of its liability, it shall give notice thereof in writing to all its members and creditors and notwithstanding the provisions of section 24 or any bye-law or contract to the contrary, any member or creditor shall, during a period of two months from the date of service of the notice upon him, have the option of withdrawing his shares, deposits or loans, as the case may be.

(3)Any member or creditor who does not exercise his option within the period specified in sub-section (2) shall be deemed to have given his assent to the change.

(4)An amendment of the bye-laws of a society changing the form or extent of its liability shall not be registered or take effect until either—

(a)the assent thereto of all members and creditors has been given or deemed to have been given; or

(b)all claims of members and creditors who exercise the option referred to in sub-section (2) within the period specified therein have been met in full.

12.Amendment of bye-law of society.—(1) No amendment of any bye-law of a society shall be valid unless such amendment has been registered under this Act.

(2)The provisions of section 7 specifying the conditions to be satisfied before registration of the bye-laws of a society by the Registrar shall mutatis mutandis, apply also to the registration of amendments to bye-laws:

Provided that the Registrar shall before registering an amendment of any bye-law consult-

(a)the State Co-operative Union if the bye-laws to be amended are that of an apex society or a central society; or

(b)the circle co-operative union if the bye-laws that are to be amended are that of any other society; and

(c)the financing bank if the society is indebted to the financing bank.

(3)The Registrar shall forward to the society a copy of the registered amendment together with a certificate of registration signed and sealed by him, and such certificate shall be conclusive evidence that the amendment has been duly registered.

(4)Where the Registrar refuses to register an amendment of the bye-laws of a society, he shall communicate the order of refusal, together with the reasons therefore, within seven days of the order to the society

[24][“(4A) An application to register an amendment of the bye-laws of a society shall be disposed of by the Registrar within ninety days from the date of receipt of the same.

(4B) Where an application to register an amendment of the bye-laws of a society is not disposed of within the time specified in sub-section (4A), the society may make a representation,-

(a) before the Registrar of Co-Operative Societies, if the application to register the amendment of the bye-laws is made to a person on whom the powers of the Registrar is conferred under sub-section (2) of section 3; or

(b) before the Government if the application for registration of the amendment of the bye-laws is made before the Registrar, and the Registrar or the Government, as the case may be, shall within, sixty days from the date of receipt of such representation, issue directions to the authority concerned, to dispose of the same”]

(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or the rules or bye-laws, if the Registrar is satisfied that for the purpose of altering the area of operation of a registered society or for the purpose of improving the services rendered by it, an amendment of the bye-laws of a society is necessary or desirable, he may, after consulting the financing bank, if any, to which the society is affiliated and the circle co-operative union, by order in writing, require the society to make the amendment within such time as may be specified in such order or within such further time as he may grant for the purpose.

(6) If within the time specified under sub-section (5), the society fails to make the amendment, as required by the Registrar or with such further changes as he may agree to, the Registrar may, after giving the society an opportunity for making its representations, register the amendments as required or agreed to by him and issue to the society a copy of such amendments together with a certificate of registration signed and sealed by him and thereupon such amendment shall be binding on the society and its members.

(7) The provisions of sub-section (4) of section 11 shall not apply when action is taken under sub-sections (5) and (6) of this section.

13. When amendments of bye-laws come into force.—An amendment of the bye-laws of a society shall, unless it is expressed to come into operation on a particular day, come into force on the day on which it is registered.

14.. Amalgamation, transfer of assets and liabilities and division of societies.—(1) A society may, with the previous approval of the Registrar and by a resolution passed by a two-thirds majority of the members present and voting at a general body meeting of the society,-

(a) transfer its assets and liabilities in whole or in part to any other society;

(c)divide itself into two or more societies

(2)Any two or more societies may, with the previous approval of the Registrar and by a resolution passed by a two-thirds majority of the members present and voting at a general body meeting of each such society, amalgamate themselves and form a new society.

(3)The resolution of a society under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) all contain all particulars of the transfer, division or amalgamation as the case may be.

(4)When a society has passed any such resolution, it shall give notice thereof in writing to all its members and creditors and notwithstanding the provisions of section 24 or any bye-law or contract to the contrary, any member or creditor shall, within a period of two months from the date of service of the notice upon him, have the option of withdrawing his shares, deposits or loans, as the case may be.

(5)Any member of creditor who does not exercise his option within the period specified in sub-section (4) shall be deemed to have given his assent to the proposals contained in the resolution.

(6)A resolution passed by a society under this section shall not take effect until either—

(a)the assent thereto of all the members and creditors has been given or deemed to have been given; or

(b)all claims of members and creditors who exercise the option referred to in sub-section (4) within the period specified therein, have been met in full.

(7)Where a resolution passed by a society under this section involves the transfer of any assets and liabilities, the resolution shall, notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, be a sufficient conveyance to vest the assets and liabilities in the transferee without any further assurance.

(8)(i) Where, in the opinion of the Registrar, the amalgamation of two or more societies is necessary or desirable for increasing their strength or usefulness, he may, after consulting, in the manner prescribed, the financing bank to which the societies are affiliated and the circle co-operative union, call upon such societies to amalgamate within such time as may be specified by him into one society in accordance with the provisions of sub-sections (2) to (7).

(ii)If the societies fail to amalgamate into one society within the time specified by the Registrar, he may, after giving an opportunity to the committee of each of the societies to state its objections, if any direct the amalgamation of the societies into one society.

(iii) Every society so directed shall, within one month of the receipt of the Registrar's direction, give notice of the direction to all its members and creditors.

(iv) (a) Any member of any of the societies so directed may notwithstanding the provisions of section 24 or any bye-law to the contrary, by notice given to the society of which he is a member, within a period of two months from the date of receipt by him of the direction, intimate his intention not to become a member of the new society and shall have the option of withdrawing his shares, deposits or loans, as the case may be.

(b) Any creditor of any of the societies so directed may, notwithstanding any agreement to the contrary, by notice given to the society of which he is a creditor, within a period of two months from the date of receipt by him of the direction, demand a return of the amount due to him.

(v) Any member or creditor who does not exercise his option within the period aforesaid shall be deemed to have given his assent to the amalgamation.

(vi) After the repayment of the share capital of the members and the discharge of the claims of the creditors, if any, under clause (iv) by the societies directed to be amalgamated or after a majority of the members and creditors of such societies have given their assent to the amalgamation the Registrar may register the new society. On such registration, the registration of the old societies shall be deemed to have been cancelled. The registration of the new society shall be a sufficient conveyance to vest in it all the assets and liabilities of the original societies.

(9) (i) Where, in the opinion of the Registrar it is desirable for increasing the usefulness of a society by restricting the area of its operation, he may, after consulting, in the manner prescribed, the financing bank, if any, to which the society is affiliated and the circle co-operative union, by order call upon the society to divide itself into two or more societies within such time as may be specified in the order in accordance with the provisions of sub-sections (2) to (7).

(ii) If the society fails to divide itself within the time specified by the Registrar, he may, after giving an opportunity to the committee of the society to state its objections, if any, by order direct the division of the society to state its objections, if any, by order direct the division of the society into two or more societies. The order of the Registrar shall contain directions for the division of the assets and liabilities of the society among the new society into which it is directed to be divided and may specify the area of operation of, and the members who will constitute, each of the new societies. The proposed bye-laws of the new societies shall be annexed to the order.

(iii) The society shall, within one month of the receipt of the order of the Registrar, give notice of the direction to all its members and creditors.

(iv) Any members of the society may, notwithstanding the provisions of section 24 or any bye law to the contrary, by notice given to the society within a period of two months from the date of receipt by him of the direction, intimate his intention not to become a member of any of the new societies and shall have the option of withdrawing his shares, deposits or loans, as the case may be.

(v) Any creditor of the society may, notwithstanding any agreement to the contrary, by notice given to the society within the period referred to the clause (iv), demand a return of the amount due to him.

(vi) Any member or creditor who does not exercise his option within the period aforesaid shall be deemed to have given his assent to the division in the manner specified in the order of the Registrar under clause (ii).

(vii) After the repayment of the share capital of the members and the discharge of the claims of the creditors, if any, under clauses (iv) and (v) by the society directed to be divided or after a majority of the members and creditors of the society have given their assent to the division, the Registrar may register the new societies. On such registration the registration of the old society shall be deemed to have been cancelled. The registration of the new societies shall be sufficient conveyance to vest in the new societies all the assets and liabilities of the old society in the manner specified in the order of the Registrar under clause (ii).

15. Cancellation of registration certificates of societies in certain cases.-(1) Where the whole of the assets and liabilities of a society are transferred to another society in accordance with the provisions of section 14, the registration of the first mentioned society shall stand cancelled and that society shall be deemed to have been dissolved and shall cease to exist as a corporate body.

(2) Where two or more societies are amalgamated into a new society in accordance with the provisions of section 14 the registration of each of the amalgamating societies shall stand cancelled on the registration of the new society and each amalgamating society shall be deemed to have been dissolved and shall cease to exist as a corporate body.

(4) Where a society is divided into two or more societies in accordance with the provisions of section 14, the registration of that society shall stand cancelled on the registration of the new societies and that society shall be deemed to have been dissolved and shall cease to exist as a corporate body

(c)the Government; and

(d) any body of persons, whether incorporated or not and whether or not established by or under any law, if such body is approved by the Government in this behalf by general or special order:

Provided that in a society formed for the promotion of the economic interests of members through a specified activity no person other than one who is likely to be benefited directly by such activity may be admitted as a member of such society unless such admission is permitted specifically by rules:

Provided further that where a society is formed exclusively for the benefit of persons engaged in any particular industry, no person who is not an actual worker in the industry shall be admitted in excess of such percentage of the total membership of the society as may be prescribed:

Provided also that the Coffee Board, the Rubber Board and any other statutory or non-statutory Board, Committee or Corporation constituted for the purpose of the development of an industry, may be admitted as a member of a society engaged in marketing and processing of the products of the industry concerned and formed for the workers and growers of such industry, so however that no such Board, Committee or Corporation shall be admitted as a member of a co-operative credit society.

[\[26\]](#)[“Provided also that in the case of hospital co-operative societies, industrial and commercial establishments and other organizations registered under any other law may be admitted as members.

Explanation.-For the purpose of this sub-section ‘hospital co-operative society’ means a society, the main object of which is to run a hospital or to conduct medical or paramedical courses or to run medical shops.”;]

(2) Membership in any society other than a society formed for the benefit of the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes shall not be refused merely on the ground that a person belongs or does not belong to a particular religion, race, community, caste, sect or denomination. A decision on an application for membership shall be taken within two months from the date of receipt of the application.

[27][“(2A) Where an application for membership in a society is not disposed of within the time specified in sub-section (2), the Registrar shall be bound, on the written request of the applicant, to determine whether such membership shall be given or not;

(2B) Where the Registrar does not, within one month of the date of receipt of such written request determine whether such membership should be given or not, the applicant may make a representation,-

(a) before the Registrar, if the request referred to in sub-section (2A) is made to a person on whom, the powers of the Registrar is conferred under sub-section (2) of section 3; or

(b) before the Government, if the request referred to in sub-section (2A) is made to the Registrar and the Registrar or the Government, as the case may be, shall, within thirty days from the date of receipt of such representation, determine whether such membership should be given or not.”.]

(3).Where a person is refused admission as a member in a society, the decision refusing admission together with the reasons therefore shall be communicated by the society to that person within a period of fifteen days from the date of the decision.

17.Expulsion of members.—(1) Any member of a society, who has acted adversely to the interests of the society, may be expelled upon a resolution of the general body passed at a special meeting convened for the purpose by the votes of not less than two-thirds of the total number of members present and voting at the meeting.

(2) No member shall be expelled under sub-section (1) without being given an opportunity of making his representation.

(3) A copy of the resolution expelling a member shall be communicated to the member within a period of fifteen days from the date of passing of the resolution.

18. Nominal or associate members.—(1) A society may admit any individual as a nominal or associate member

[28] [“Provided that a District Co-operative Bank may admit any Co-operative Society registered under the provisions of this Act, other than Primary Agricultural Credit Societies and Urban Co-operative Banks functioning within its area of operation, as nominal or associated member:

Provided further that the members of a District Co-operative Bank other than Primary Agricultural Credit Societies and Urban Co-operative Banks, as on the date of commencement of the Kerala Co-operative Society (Second Amendment) Act, 1997, shall become nominal or associate members of such District Co-operative Bank, at such commencement.”]

[29][“Provided also that a hospital co-operative society may admit any other society as nominal or associate member.

Explanation.—The term ‘hospital co-operative society’ shall have the same meaning as in the Explanation to the fourth proviso to sub-section (1) of section 16.”.]

(2)A nominal or associate member shall not be entitled to any share, in any form whatsoever, in the assets or profits of the society or to be elected to the committee of a society.

(d) have guaranteed the repayment of principal and payment of interest on loans and advances to an apex or a central society, the Government or any authority specified by them in this behalf shall have the right to nominate not more than three persons or one-third of the total number of members of the committee of such apex or central society whichever is less, to be members of the committee.

(2) A person nominated to the committee of an apex or a central society under subsection (1) shall hold office during the pleasure of the Government or the specified authority, as the case may be.

(3) A person nominated to the committee of an apex or a central society under subsection (1) shall not take part in the discussion of any no- confidence motion or vote on any such motion.

(4) Any person who holds office as a nominated member of the committee of a society, other than an apex or a central society, at the commencement of the Kerala Co-operative Societies (Amendment) Act 1987 shall cease to hold such office at such commencement.”]

32. Supersession of committee.-[\[44\]](#)["(1) If the Registrar, after an inquiry by himself or through his subordinates or on a report of the financing bank, or the Vigilance, and Anticorruption Bureau of the Government or the Vigilance Officer or otherwise, is satisfied that the committee of any society,-

(a) persistently makes default or is negligent in the performance of the duties imposed on it by this Act or the rules or the bye-laws or does anything which is prejudicial to the interests of the society; or

(b) wilfully disobeys or fails to comply with any lawful order or direction issued under this Act or the rules; or

(c)makes any payment contrary to this Act or the rules or the bye-laws or causes any loss or damage to the assets of the society, by breach of trust or wilful negligence; or

(d)misappropriates or destroys or tampers with the records or causes the destruction of records to cover up any misconduct or malpractice, he may, after giving the committee an opportunity to state its objections, if any, by order in writing, remove the committee and, appoint a new committee consisting of not more than three members of the society in its place or appoint not more than three administrators who need not be members of the society, to manage the affairs of the society for a period not exceeding six months, as may be specified in the order, which period may, at the discretion of the Registrar, be extended from time to time, so however that the aggregate period does not exceed one year.”;]

(2)The Registrar shall consult the financing bank and circle co-operative union or State Co-operative Union, as the case may be, before passing an order under sub-section (1).

(3)Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) it shall not be necessary to give an opportunity to the committee to state its objections and to consult the Unions and financing banks, in cases where the Registrar is of the opinion that it is not reasonably practicable to do so, subject however to the condition that in such cases, the period of supersession shall generally be for six months and in case a new committee cannot be constituted or enter upon office in accordance with the bye-laws of the society within the period of supersession the period may be extended for a further period not exceeding six months—

(a)in the case of a Co-operative society only after consulting the circle co-operative union concerned; and

(b)in the case of an Apex Society or a Central Society only after consulting the State Co-operative Union.

(4)The committee or administrator or administrators so appointed shall, subject to the control of the Registrar and to such instructions as he may from time to time give [\[45\]](#) [“have power to exercise all or any of the powers and functions”,] of the committee or of any officer of the society and take all such action as may be required in the interests of the society.

(5)The committee or administrator or administrators shall, before the expiry of its or his or their terms of office, arrange for the constitution of a new committee in accordance with the bye-laws of the society.

(6)Every order made by the Registrar under sub-section (1) shall be communicated to the circle co-operative union.

33. Appointment of new committee or administrator on failure to constitute committee, etc.—(1) Where the term of office of a committee has expired and new committee has not been constituted, or [46][where a no-confidence motion is passed by the general body against the existing committee or where the existing committee resigns enbloc or where vacancies occur in the committee either by resignation or otherwise and the number of remaining members cannot constitute the quorum for the meeting of the committee, or where the committee failed to hold its regular meeting consecutively for six months or where the Registrar is satisfied,]

(a)that a new committee cannot be constituted before the expiry of the term of office of the existing committee; or

(b)that a new committee is prevented from entering upon office, or a new committee fails to enter upon office, on the date on which the terms of office of the existing committee expires, the Registrar may, either suo motu or on the application of any member of the society after [47][intimating] the circle co-operative union, appoint—

(i) a new committee consisting of not more than three members of the society;

(ii)[48] [ not more than three Administrates who need not be members of the society, to manage the affairs of the society] [49][“for a period not exceeding six months as may be specified in the order, which period may, at the discretion of the Registrar and for reasons to be recorded in writing, be extended, from time to time, so, however, that the aggregate period shall not, in any case, exceed one year or till a new committee enters upon office, whichever is earlier”]

Provided that before making such order, the Registrar shall publish a notice on the notice board of the head office of the society inviting objections to the making of the order within a period specified in the notice and consider such objections.

Provided further that it shall not be necessary to publish such notice in cases where the Registrar is satisfied that it is not reasonably practicable to do so.

[50][“Provided also that, where a committee, administrator or administrators, as the case may be, is in office at the commencement of the Kerala Co-operative Societies (Amendment) Act 1992, the Registrar may extend the term of such committee administrator or administrators, as the case may be, for a further period not exceeding one year from the date of such commencement.”]

[51][ Explanation.—For the purposes of this sub-section a tender or resignation by a member of the committee shall have the effect of terminating his membership from the committee.]

[52][“(1A) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where on receipt of a report from the Registrar, the Government are satisfied that a new committee cannot be constituted or cannot enter upon office of the society before the expiry of the term of office of the committee, administrator or administrators, as the case may be, appointed by the Registrar under sub section (1) and that it is necessary in the public interest to manage the affairs of the society and to enable a new elected committee to enter upon office, the Government may, by notification in the Gazette, for reasons to be recorded, permit the Registrar to extend the terms of the said committee, administrator or administrators, as the case may be, for a further period not exceeding one year in the aggregate or till a new committee enters upon office, whichever is earlier.”;]

(2)The committee or administrator or administrators appointed under sub-section [53][ (1) and (1A)] shall, subject to the control of the Registrar and to such instructions as he may from time to time give, [54][have power to exercise all or any of the powers and functions] of the committee or of any officer of the society and take all such action as may be required in the interests of the society.

(3)The committee or administrator or administrators shall arrange for the constitution of a new committee or for the entering upon office of the new committee, as the case may be.

34.Securing possession of records, etc.-(1) If the committee of a society is reconstituted at a general meeting of the society or the committee of a society is removed by the Registrar under section 32 or a new committee or administrator or administrators is or are appointed under section 33 or if the society is ordered to be wound up under section 71 and the outgoing members of the committee refuse to hand over charge of the records and property of the society to the new committee or administrator or administrators or the liquidator, as the case may be, or if an outgoing president or secretary who is the custodian of the records and property of a society refuses to hand over charge of the records and property of the society to his successor, the new committee or administrator or administrators or the liquidator, or the president or secretary may with the previous sanction of the Registrar apply to the Magistrate within whose jurisdiction the society functions, for securing the records and properties of the society.

(2)On receipt of an application under sub-section (1), the Magistrate may, by a warrant, authorize any Police Officer, not below the rank of Sub-Inspector, to enter and search any place where the records and the property of the society are kept or are believed to be kept and to seize such records and property, and the records and property so seized shall be handed over to the new committee or administrator or administrators or the liquidator or the president or secretary, as the case may be.

(3)Where the Registrar or any other officer not below the rank of Assistant Registrar of Co-operative Societies authorized by him in this behalf in the course of audit, inspection, inquiry or supervision is of opinion that there is room to suspect gross negligence of duties, misappropriation or misuse of funds of the society or irregularity in recording proceedings or keeping accounts or books or is satisfied that the records, registers or the account-books of a society are likely to be tampered with or destroyed and the funds and property of a society are likely to be misappropriated or misapplied, he shall have power to take possession of any or all of the books, registers, securities or documents, cash in hand or account-books of the society and remove such seized records and property and to deal with them in any manner as may be directed by the Registrar.

. (4)The Registrar or other officer seizing the records and property of a society under sub-section (3) shall prepare an inventory of the records and property seized in duplicate with his signature and require the officer, employee or member of the society from whose custody the records and property are seized to affix his signature in witness thereof and, if such officer or employee or member refuses to sign, then the Registrar or other officer seizing the records and property shall cause two or more persons to sign the inventory as witnesses to the correctness thereof. A copy of the inventory prepared under this section shall be delivered to the officer, employee or member of the society from whose custody the records and property were seized.

CHAPTER V

Privileges of Co-operative Societies

35.First charge of society on certain assets.-(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, but subject to any prior claim of the Government in respect of land revenue or any money recoverable as land revenue, any debt or outstanding demand owing to a society by any member or past member or deceased member shall be a first charge-

(a)upon the crops or other agricultural produce of such member for the raising of which the loan was taken from the society by such member; and

(b)upon any cattle, fodder for cattle, agricultural or industrial implements or machinery, or raw materials for manufacture supplied, or purchased in whole or in part out of any loan given, by the society, or on any article manufactured from raw materials so supplied or purchased

(2)No person shall transfer any property which is subject to a charge under sub-section (1) except with the previous permission in writing of the society which holds the charge.

(3)Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, any transfer of property made in contravention of the provisions of sub-section (2) shall be void.

(4)The charges created under sub-section (1) shall be available as against any claim of the Government arising from any loan granted by them after the grant of the loan by the society.

36. Charge on land owned or held by members borrowing loans from certain societies.-Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or any other law for the time being in force,-

(i) a member who makes an application for a loan to a society of which the majority of the members are agriculturists shall, if he owns any land or holds any land as a tenant entitled to fixity of tenure, make a declaration in the prescribed form, which shall state that the applicant thereby creates a charge on the land owned by him or on his interest in the land held by him as tenant and specified therein, for the payment of the amount of the loan which the society may make to the member on the application and future loans, if any, that may be made to him, from time to time, by the society together with interest on such loan or loans;

ii) a declaration made under clause

(i) may be varied or cancelled at any time by the member, with the previous written permission of the society in favour of which such charge has been created;

(iii) no member shall alienate the whole or any part of the land or his interest in the land specified in the declaration made under clause (i) or varied under clause (ii) until the whole amount borrowed by the member together with interest thereon is paid to the society in full:

Provided that standing crops on any such land may be alienated with the previous permission in writing of the society:

Provided further that it shall be lawful to a member to mortgage such land or any part thereof in favour of the Government or a Land Mortgage Bank:

Provided also that if a part of the amount borrowed by a member is paid, the society with the approval of the financing bank to which it may be indebted may, on an application from the member, release from the charge created by the declaration made under clause (i) or varied under clause (ii) such part of the land or of the interest in land specified in the declaration as it may deem proper, with due regard to the security of the balance of the amount of loan outstanding from the member;

(iv) any alienation made in contravention of clause (iii) shall be null and void;

(v) subject to the claims of the Government in respect of basic tax or any money recoverable as land revenue and to the claims of the Government or the Land Mortgage Bank in respect of any money payable under a mortgage in favour of the Government or the Land Mortgage Bank and to the prior claims of any person in whose favour alienation of the land or interest in land specified in the declaration made under clause (i) or varied under clause (ii) has been effected and duly registered, before the date of the grant of the loan by the society, there shall be a first charge in favour of the society on such land or interest for and to the extent of the dues owing by him on account of the loan;

(vi) a declaration made under clause

(i) or any variation or cancellation thereof under clause (ii) or any release under the third proviso to clause (iii) shall be sent by the society, by registered post, to the sub registrar having jurisdiction over the area in which the land is situate, and the sub registrar shall register such declaration or variation or cancellation or release and issue a copy thereof to the society.

(vii) Any declaration made under clause (i) or any variation or cancellation thereof under clause (ii) or any release under the third proviso to clause (iii), which has not been registered under clause (vi) shall be null and void.

Explanation.—In this section—

(a) “basic tax” means the tax imposed under the provisions of the Kerala Land Tax Act, 1961 (13 of 1961);

(b) “Land Mortgage Bank” means the Kerala Co-operative Central Land Mortgage Bank, Limited, or a primary mortgage bank as defined in the Kerala Co-operative Land Mortgage Banks Act, 1960 (1 of 1960)

[\[55\]](#) [“36A. Charge on movable or immovable property of borrower by creating Gehan.—Notwithstanding anything contained in any other provisions of this Act, charge on movable or immovable property of a borrower in favour of the State Co-operative Bank or a District Co-operative Bank or a Primary Agricultural Credit Society or a Primary Housing Society may be created by Gehan in respect of which the provisions of sections 10 to 15 (both inclusive) of the Kerala State Co-operative Agricultural and Rural Development Banks Act, 1984 (20 of 1984), as amended from time to time, shall apply with the modification of substituting the words “State Co-operative Bank or District Co-operative Banks”, “Primary Agricultural Credit Society or Primary Housing Society”, “Society” and “said Bank or Society”, respectively, for the words “Agricultural and Rural Development Bank”, “primary bank”, “bank” and “said banks” occurring in the said sections.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section, Gehan means a special charge on movable or immovable property, in favour of the State Co-operative Bank or a District Co-operative Bank or a Primary Agricultural Credit Society or a Primary Housing Society by a mere declaration in writing by the borrower, for securing the payment of money advanced or to be advanced by way of loan, which will have all the characteristics of a valid mortgage.”.]

37. Deduction from salary to meet society’s claim in certain cases.—(1)
Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, a member of a society may execute an agreement in favour of the society providing that his employer or the officer disbursing his salary or wages shall be competent to deduct from the salary or wages payable to him by the employer, such amount as may be specified in the agreement and to pay the amount so deducted to the society in satisfaction of any debt or other demand owing by the member to the society.

(2). On the execution of such an agreement, the employer or the officer disbursing the salary or wages of any such member as is referred to in sub-section (1) shall, if so required by the society by requisition in writing and so long as such debt or demand or any part of it remains unpaid, make the deduction in accordance with the agreement and pay the amounts so deducted to the society within seven days from the date of the deduction.

38.Charges and set-off in respect of shares or interest of members in the capital of a society.—A society shall have a charge upon the share or interest in the capital and on the deposits of a member or past member or deceased member and on any dividend, bonus or profits payable to a member or past member or the estate of a deceased member in respect of any debt or outstanding demand owing to the society and may set-off any sum credited or payable to a member, past member or the estate of a deceased member in or towards payment of any such debt or outstanding demand:

Provided that no financing bank to which a society is affiliated shall have a charge upon any sum invested in the financing bank as reserve fund by the society if the bank is not the sole creditor of the society, or be entitled to set-off any such sum credited or payable to the society towards any debt due from such society.

PART-A

AUDIT

63. Director of Co-operative Audit.—(1) The Government shall by notification in the official gazette, appoint a person to be the Director of Co-operative Audit with jurisdiction over the whole of the State.

(2) The qualification and the terms and conditions of the person to be appointed as the Director of Co-operative Audit shall be such, as may be prescribed.

(3) The Government may by general or special order, confer on any officer all or any of the powers of the Director of Co-operative Audit under this Act.

(4) It shall be the duty of the Director of Co-operative Audit to audit or to cause to be audited through persons authorised by him, the accounts of every society, at least once in each year.

64. Scope of audit, powers of the Director of Co-operative Audit and procedure for audit.—(1) The audit shall include an examination of overdue debts, if any, the verification of the cash balance and securities and a valuation of the assets and liabilities of the society concerned and such other audit matters, as may be prescribed.

(2) For the purpose of audit, the Director of Co-operative Audit or the person authorised by him under section 63 shall have the following powers, namely:—

(a) he shall, at all reasonable times, have access to all the books, accounts, documents, papers and all other relevant records, securities, cash and other properties belonging to, or in the custody or control of the society;

(b) he may summon any person in possession of, or responsible for the custody, of any such books, accounts, documents, papers, other records, securities, cash or other properties, to produce the same at any place at the headquarters of the society or any branch thereof or, where there is no working office for a society, at the office of the Director of Co-operative Audit or at the office of any of his subordinate officers, as may be specified by him; and

(c) such other powers as may be prescribed.

(3) Every person who is or has been, at any time, an officer or employee of the society and every member and past member of the society, who is in possession of any information and records in regard to the transactions and working of the society, shall furnish such information in regard to the transactions and working of the society, as the Director or the person authorised by the Government under sub-section (3) of section 63 may require.

(4) The financial statement and other details required for the completion of audit shall be prepared by the society, within three months from the date of completion of the year and the fact shall be reported to the Director of Co-operative Audit or to the person authorised by him in this behalf.

(5) The audit shall be commenced within one month from the date of receipt of the report under sub-section (4) by the Director of Co-operative Audit or the person authorised by him, as the case may be, and shall be completed within a period of nine months.

(6) The amount of fee for the audit of accounts of society for each year shall be such, as may be fixed by the Director of Co-operative Audit, in accordance with the rules made in this behalf.

(7) The fee shall be paid by the society concerned within thirty days of intimation thereof and, in case of non-payment of the fee within the period it shall be recoverable in the manner specified in section 79.

(8) The procedure for payment of the fee shall be such, as may be prescribed.

(9) If the result of the audit held under section 63 discloses any defects in the working of a society, the Director of Co-operative Audit may bring such defects to the notice of the society and if the society is affiliated to another society, also to the notice of that other society.

(10) If the result of the audit held under section 63 discloses any serious defect in the working of the society, the Director of Co-operative Audit or the person authorised by him shall communicate the same forthwith to the Registrar for immediate further action.

(11) The Director of Co-operative Audit may, by order in writing, direct the society or its officers to take such action, as may be specified in the order, within the time mentioned therein to rectify the defects disclosed in the audit, under intimation to the Registrar.

PART-B

INQUIRY, SUSPENSION, INVESTIGATION AND SURCHARGE

65. Inquiry by the Registrar.—(1) The Registrar may,—

- (a) on his own motion; or
- (b) on an inquiry report of the Vigilance Officer appointed under section 68A; or
- (c) on a report of the Director of Co-operative Audit appointed under section 63; or
- (d) on an application by the majority of the members of the committee of the society, or by not less than one third of the quorum for the general body meeting, whichever is less; or
- (e) on an application by the apex society or financing bank of which such society is a member; or
- (f) on an application of a society to which the society concerned is affiliated;

hold an enquiry by himself or by a person authorised by order in writing, into the constitution, working and financial condition of the society, if he is satisfied that it is necessary so to do.

(2) The Registrar or the person authorised by him under sub-section (1) shall, for the purpose of an inquiry under this section, have the following powers, namely:—

- (a) he shall, at all reasonable times, have free access to the books, accounts, documents, securities, cash and other properties belonging to, or in the custody of the society and may summon any person in possession of or responsible for the custody of any such books, accounts, documents, securities, cash or other properties, to produce the same at any place at the headquarters of the society or at any branch thereof or where there is no working office for the society, at the office of the Registrar or at the office of any of his subordinate officers;
- (b) he may summon any person who, he has reason to believe, has knowledge of any of the affairs of the society, to appear before him at any place at the headquarters of the society or any branch thereof and may examine such person on oath; and
- (c) (i) he may, notwithstanding any rule or bye-law specifying the period of notice for a general body meeting of the society, himself call a general body meeting or require the President or Secretary of the society to call a general body meeting at such time and place at the headquarters of the society or any branch thereof, to determine such matters as may be directed by him;

(ii) any meeting called under sub-clause (i), shall have all the powers of a general body meeting called under the bye-laws of the society.

(3) When an inquiry is made under this section, the Registrar may communicate the result of the inquiry to the financing bank, if any, to the society to which such society is affiliated and to the Circle Co-operative Union.

(4) When an inquiry made under this section reveals only minor defects which, in the opinion of the Registrar, can be remedied by the society, he shall communicate the result of the inquiry to the society and the society, if any, to which that society is affiliated. He shall also direct the society or its officers to take such action within the time specified therein to rectify the defects disclosed in such inquiry.

(5) The inquiry under this section shall be completed within a period of six months.

(6) If the Registrar, on completion of the inquiry finds that there is a major defect in the constitution or working or financial condition of the society, he may initiate action in accordance with the provisions of section 32.

66. Supervision and Inspection.—(1) The Registrar shall supervise or cause to be supervised by a person authorised by him by general or special order in writing in this behalf, the working of every society as frequently, as he may consider necessary. The supervision under this sub-section may include an inspection of the books of the society.

(2) The Registrar may, on his own motion, or on the application of a creditor of a society, inspect or direct any person authorised by him, by order in writing in this behalf, to inspect the books of the society:

Provided that no such inspection shall be made on the application of a creditor unless the applicant,—

(a) satisfies the Registrar that the debt is a sum then due and that he has demanded payment thereof and has not received satisfaction within a reasonable time; and

(b) deposits with the Registrar such a sum as security for the costs of the proposed inspection as the Registrar may require.

(3) Where the inspection under sub-section (2) is made on the application of a creditor, the Registrar shall communicate the result of such inspection to such creditor.

(4) The Registrar or any person authorised by the Registrar under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) shall at all reasonable time have free access to the books, records and accounts of the society and may summon any person in possession of or responsible for the custody of any such books, records and accounts, to produce the same for inspection at any place at the headquarters of the society or any branch thereof or where there is no working office for the society, at the office of the Registrar or at the office of any of his subordinate officers. It shall be the duty of every officer and employee of the society to assist in such supervision or inspection and to furnish any information that may be required for the purpose.

(5). The Registrar or the person authorised by him under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) may, by order in writing, direct the society or its officers to take such action, as may be specified in such order, within the time that may be mentioned in such order.

(6) The Circle Co-operative Union shall have the power to direct that a non-official member thereof shall be present at an inspection under sub-section (2):

Provided that such non-official member shall not have the power to make the inspection himself.

(7) Apex Society or Federal Co-operative Society or a financing bank shall have the right to inspect the books of any registered society which is affiliated to it, through its officers.

(8) An officer of an Apex Society or Federal Co-operative Society or a financing bank, inspecting the books of a society shall at all reasonable times have the access to the books, accounts, documents, securities, cash and other properties belonging to the society and may call for such information, statements and return, as may be necessary to ascertain the financial condition of the society and the safety of the sums lent to it.

(9) An officer referred to in sub-section (8) shall also have power to summon any person in possession of or responsible for the custody of any books, accounts, documents, securities, cash and other properties, referred to in that sub-section to produce the same for inspection or verification at any place at the headquarters of the society or any branch thereof.

(10) Apex Society or Federal Co-operative Society or the financing bank may also report to the Registrar about the action to be taken against the society, as a result of the inspection by its officers.

66A. Powers of Registrar to give directions.—Subject to the provisions contained in this Act and the rules made thereunder, the Registrar may issue general directions and guidelines to the Co-operative Societies in furtherance of the purposes of this Act.

66B. Suspension of Officers.—If the Registrar, in the course of any inquiry under section 65 or on inspection under section 66 or on audit under section 64 or on the report of Vigilance Officer appointed under section 68A, is satisfied that any officer other than the President, Vice President, Chairman, Vice Chairman and member of the committee of any society, has done any act detrimental to the interest of the society or its members and that there is reason to believe that such officer has indulged in misappropriation, manipulation of accounts, forgery, destruction or tampering of records of the society, he may, for reasons to be recorded in writing issue a direction to the committee of the said society to suspend the officer or officers responsible for the offence forthwith.

Cost of inquiry or inspection.—

Where an inquiry is held under section 65, or an inspection is held under section 66 on the application of a creditor, the Registrar may, by order, apportion the cost, or such portion of the cost, as he may deem fit, between the society to which the society concerned is affiliated, the society, the member or creditor demanding an inquiry or inspection and the officers or former officers, of the society:

Provided that,—

- (a) no order of apportionment of the cost shall be made under this section unless the society or the person sought to be made liable to pay the costs thereunder has had a reasonable opportunity of being heard;
- (b) the Registrar shall state in writing the grounds on which the costs are apportioned.

68. Surcharge.—(1) If in the course of an audit, inquiry, inspection or the winding up of a society, it is found that any person, who is or was entrusted with the organization or management of such society or who is or has, at any time been an officer or an employee of the society, has made any payment contrary to the Act and the rules or the bye-laws, or has caused any loss or damage in the assets of the society by breach of trust or wilful negligence or mismanagement or has misappropriated or fraudulently retained any money or other property belonging to such society or has destroyed or caused the destruction of the records, the Registrar may, of his own motion or on the application of the committee, liquidator or any creditor, inquire himself or direct any person authorised by him by an order in writing in this behalf, to inquire into the conduct of such person.

(2) Where an inquiry is made under sub-section (1), the Registrar may, after giving the person concerned, an opportunity of being heard, by order in writing, require him to repay or restore the money or other property or any part thereof, with interest at such rate, or to pay contribution and costs or compensation to such extent, as the Registrar may consider just and equitable.

68A. Vigilance Officer.—(1) The Government shall appoint an officer, not below the rank of Deputy Inspector General of Police, as Vigilance Officer with powers to inquire into and investigate the cases of misappropriation, corruption and any other major irregularity in the societies as may be referred to him by the Registrar.

(2) The Vigilance Officer shall conduct the inquiry and investigation in such manner, as may be prescribed.

(3) The Vigilance Officer shall be under the administrative control of the Registrar of Co-operative Societies:

Provided that the powers of the Registrar of Co-operative Societies under this section shall not be conferred on any other person."

18. Substitution of Chapter IX.—In the principal Act, for the existing Chapter IX, the following chapter shall be substituted, namely:—

"CHAPTER IX SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES

69. Disputes to be decided by Co-operative Arbitration Court and Registrar.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, if a dispute arises,—

(a) among members, past members and persons claiming through members, past members and deceased members; or

(b) between a member, past member or person claiming through a member, a past member or deceased member and the society, its committee or any officer, agent or employee of the society; or

(c) between the society or its committee and any past committee any officer, agent or employee or any past officer, past agent or past employee or the nominee, heirs or legal representatives of any deceased officer, deceased agent or deceased employee of the society; or

(d) between the society and any other society; or

(e) between a society and the members of a society affiliated to it; or

(f) between the society and a person, other than a member of the society, who has been granted a loan by the society or with whom the society has or had business transactions or any person claiming through such a person; or

(g) between the society and a surety of a member, past member, deceased member or employee or a person, other than a member, who has been granted a loan by the society, whether such a surety is or is not a member of the society; or

(h) between the society and a creditor of the society, such dispute shall be referred to the Co-operative Arbitration Court constituted under section 70A in the case of non-monetary disputes and to the Registrar, in the case of monetary disputes; and the Arbitration Court or the Registrar, as the case may be, shall decide such dispute and no other court or other authority shall have jurisdiction to entertain any suit or other proceedings in respect of such dispute.

(2) For the purposes of sub-section (1), the following shall also be deemed to be disputes, namely:—

(a) a claim by the society for any debt or demand due to it from a member or the nominee, heirs or legal representatives of a deceased member, whether such debt or demand be admitted or not;

(b) a claim by a surety against the principal debtor, where the society has recovered from the surety any amount in respect of any debt or demand due to it from the principal debtor, as a result of the default of the principal debtor, whether such debt or demand is admitted or not;

(c) any dispute arising in connection with the election of the Board of Management or any officer of the society;

*Explanation:—*A dispute arising at any stage of an election commencing from the convening of the general body meeting for the election, shall be deemed to be a dispute arising in connection with the election;

(d) any dispute arising in connection with employment of officers and servants of the different classes of societies specified in sub-section (1) of section 80, including their promotion and inter se seniority.

(3) No dispute arising in connection with the election of the Board of Management or an officer of the society shall be entertained by the Co-operative Arbitration Court unless it is referred to it within one month from the date of the election.

70. Award on disputes.—(1) The Co-operative Arbitration Court on receipt of reference of a dispute under sub-section (1) of section 69, shall pass an award in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the rules and the bye-laws made thereunder and such award shall, subject to the provisions of section 82, be final.

(2) The Co-operative Arbitration Court may, pending award of a dispute referred to it under section 69, make such interlocutory orders as it may deem necessary in the interests of justice.

(3) The Co-operative Arbitration Court shall have the same powers as are vested in a civil court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act 5 of 1908), while trying a suit in respect of the following matters, namely:—

- (i) the summoning and enforcing the attendance of any defendant or witness and examining the witness on oath;
- (ii) the discovery and production of any document or other material object producible as evidence;
- (iii) the reception of evidence on affidavits;
- (iv) issuing of any commission for the examination of any witness;
and
- (v) any other matter-which may be prescribed.

(4) The Registrar may, on receipt of the reference of a dispute under sub-section (1) of section 69,—

- (a) elect to decide the dispute himself; or
- (b) transfer it for disposal to any person who has been invested by the Government with powers in that behalf; or
- (c) refer it for disposal to an arbitrator appointed by the Registrar:

Provided that a transfer under clause (b) or a reference under clause (c) shall not be made to a person equal or superior to him in rank.

(5) The Registrar may withdraw any reference transferred under clause (b) of sub-section (4) or referred under clause (c) of that sub-section and he may elect to decide the dispute himself or transfer it to any other person under clause (b) of sub-section (4) or refer it to any other arbitrator under clause (c) of that sub-section.

(6) The Registrar or the person invested with powers in this behalf shall, decide the dispute or the arbitrator shall pass an award, in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the rules and the bye-laws and such decision or award shall, subject to the provisions of section 82, be final. Pending decision or award, the Registrar, such person or the arbitrator, as the case may be, may make such interlocutory orders as he may deem necessary in the interests of justice.

70A. Co-operative Arbitration Courts.—(1) The Government shall constitute such number of Co-operative Arbitration Courts as are necessary to exercise the powers and discharge the functions conferred on it under this Act.

(2) The qualifications, term salary and allowances and other conditions of service of the person to be appointed as the Co-operative Arbitration court shall be such as may be decided by the Government from time to time.

(3) The Government shall make rules for regulating the procedure and disposal of business of the Co-operative Arbitration Court.

(4) The Registrar or the Government shall lend the services of such number of officers and employees as may be necessary to assist the Co-operative Arbitration Court.

(5) The officers and employees referred to in sub-section (4) shall continue to be Government servants for all purposes and their terms and conditions of service shall continue to be the same as applicable to them under the Government.

70B. Provisions as to pending proceedings.—On the constitution of Co-operative Arbitration Court, every dispute pending before the Registrar or any person invested with the power to dispose of the dispute by the Government or the arbitrator appointed by the Registrar, in respect of non-monitory disputes, relating to the local area of jurisdiction of the Arbitration Court, shall be transferred to such Arbitration Court and the Court shall dispose of the same as if it were a dispute referred to it under section 69".

19. Amendment of Section 71.—In section 71 of the principal Act, for sub-section (3), the following sub-section shall be substituted, namely :—

"(3) If a proposal for revitalisation of a society, in respect of which an order under sub-section (2) has been passed, is received by the Registrar within a period of one year from the date of such order, the Registrar may cancel the same and allow the society to continue to exist:

Provided that this sub-section shall not apply in the case of a society which does not commence functioning within a period of six months from the date of registration".

20. Amendment of Section 73.—In section 73 of the principal Act, after sub-section (2), the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

"(2A) The liquidator shall complete the winding up proceedings within a period of three years from the date of his appointment under sub-section (1) of section 72.

Explanation:—In computing the period of three years, the period during which an appeal, if any, preferred against an order of winding up of a society under section 71 is pending, shall be excluded."

21. Insertion of new section 80B.—In the principal Act, after section 80 A, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

"80B Co-operative Service Examination Board.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or the rules or in the bye-laws of any society relating to the recruitment of officers and servants thereof, the Government shall, by notification in the Gazette, constitute a Co-operative Service Examination Board for the conduct of written examination for all direct recruitment to posts of and above the category of Junior Clerks in the Primary Agricultural Credit Societies, Primary Credit Societies, Urban Co-operative Banks and Primary Agricultural and Rural Development Banks in the State.

(2) The Examination Board shall consist of not more than three members and the term of the Board shall be five years. The powers and functions and other conditions of appointment of the members of the Board and the procedures to be followed by the Board for the conduct of examination and the preparation of list of candidates to be interviewed for appointment shall be such as may be prescribed.

(3) All appointments shall be made by the committee concerned from the list of candidates after conducting an interview of the candidates and making a select list therefrom in such manner as may be prescribed.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (3A) of section 80 and in sub-section (1) of this section, the committee of a society may, with the prior approval of the Registrar, appoint persons who are professionally or technically qualified or persons with experience and expertise to posts requiring such technical or professional qualifications on contract basis or by the method of deputation for such period, but not exceeding five years, as may be specified."

22. Amendment of Section 82.—In the principal Act, in section 82, for sub-section (1), the following sub-section shall be substituted, namely:—

"(1) Any person aggrieved by,—

(a) an award of the Co-operative Arbitration Court under sub-section (1) of section 70; or

(b) an order of the Registrar made under clause (ii) of sub-section (8) or clause (ii) of sub-section (9) of section 14; or

(c) any decision of the Registrar made under sub-section (6) of section 70; or

(d) any decision under sub-section (6) of section 70 of the person invested with powers in that behalf by the Government ; or

(e) any award of the arbitrator under sub-section (6) of section 70,

may within sixty days from the date of such decision or award, as the case may be, appeal to the Tribunal and the Tribunal may pass such orders on the appeal, as it may deem fit."

23. Amendment of section 88.—In section 88 of the principal Act, in sub-section (3), for the word "three", the word "five" shall be substituted.

24. Amendment of Section 89.—In section 89 of the principal Act, in sub-section (6), for the word "three", the word "five" shall be substituted.

ACT 13 OF 2012

THE KERALA CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETIES (AMENDMENT) ACT, 2012

An Act further to amend the Kerala Co-operative Societies Act, 1969.

Preamble.—WHEREAS, it is expedient further to amend the Kerala Co-operative Societies Act, 1969 for the purposes hereinafter appearing;

BE it enacted in the Sixty-third Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called the Kerala Co-operative Societies (Amendment) Act, 2012.

(2) Clauses (ii) and (iii) of section 2 and clause (i) of section 4 shall be deemed to have come into force on the 12th day of August, 2011, clause (i) of section 2, section 3, clause (ii) of section 4 and section 5 shall be deemed to have come into force on the 11th day of February, 2012 and the remaining provisions of this Act shall be deemed to have come into force on the 11th day of April, 2012.

2. Amendment of section 2.—In the Kerala Co-operative Societies Act, 1969 (21 of 1969) (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), in section 2,—

(i) for clause (ia), the following clause shall be substituted, namely:—

“(ia) “District Co-operative Bank” means a central society, the principal object of which is to raise funds to be lent to its members and individuals, with jurisdiction over one revenue district and having as its members any type of primary societies and Federal and Central societies having headquarters in such district.”.

(ii) in clause (oc), for the existing proviso, the following proviso shall be substituted, namely:—

“Provided that no Primary Co-operative Agricultural and Rural Development Bank shall be registered without the bifurcation of assets and liabilities of the existing societies having the area of operation in more than one Taluk and the societies shall restrict their operation in the area of the respective society on such bifurcation.”.

(iii) after clause (qb), the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

“(qc) “Special Officer” means an officer, not below the rank of an Assistant Registrar, appointed by the Registrar to take into custody the assets and liabilities of the society which secured registration without bifurcating the area of operation of an existing society and to register new societies and to constitute committees as provided in section 28 of the Act.”.

3. Amendment of section 18.—In section 18 of the principal Act, in sub-section (1), the first and the second provisos shall be omitted.

4. Amendment of section 28.—In section 28 of the principal Act,—

(i) after sub-section (1C), the following sub-sections shall be inserted, namely:—

“(1D) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or in any judgment, decree or order of any court, the registration of any Primary Co-operative Agricultural and Rural Development Bank without the bifurcation of area, assets and liabilities of the society and the constitution of the committee pursuant to any such registration without such bifurcation shall be void and the Registrar shall appoint Special Officer for each of such societies which were registered without bifurcation of area, assets and liabilities.

(1E) The Special Officer so appointed shall,—

(i) take into custody or bring under his control, the property, effects and actionable claims to which the erstwhile society is or appears to be entitled to and shall take steps as may be necessary or expedient to prevent loss or deterioration of or damage to, such property, effects and claims;

(ii) take such steps for the bifurcation of area, assets and liabilities of the society and also shall take all steps to register new society with the members of the society so bifurcated and constitute the committee;

(iii) such bifurcation shall be completed within a period of one year from the date of commencement of the Kerala Co-operative Societies (Amendment) Ordinance, 2012 (9 of 2012).”;.

(ii) after sub-section (1E) as so inserted, the following sub-sections shall be inserted, namely:—

“(1F) Notwithstanding anything contained in the bye-laws of the District Co-operative Bank, two seats in the committee of each District Co-operative Bank shall be reserved for depositor member societies in the Bank.

(1G) Notwithstanding anything contained in the bye-laws of the District Co-operative Bank, two seats in the committee of each District Co-operative Bank shall be reserved for representatives who possess experience in Banking or professional qualification:

Provided that, if no person is elected to the committee from the above, the Registrar can co-opt the members to the committee, for the time being, from among the members of the society or who are otherwise qualified.

(III) Notwithstanding anything contained in the bye-laws of the District Co-operative Bank, at least one seat in respect of each taluk shall be reserved for the representatives of Primary Agricultural Credit Societies in the committee of the District Co-operative Bank.

(II) Notwithstanding anything contained in the bye-laws of the District Co-operative Bank, at least four seats in the committee of the District Co-operative Bank shall be reserved for other types of co-operative societies as members in the District Co-operative Bank.”.

5. Special provision in respect of the existing District Co-operative Banks.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the principal Act, or in any judgment, decree or order of any court, tribunal or other authority, on the commencement of the Kerala Co-operative societies (Second Amendment) Ordinance, 2012 (18 of 2012),—

(a) any primary society which had ceased to be a member of the District Co-operative Bank as on the commencement of the Kerala Co-operative Societies (Amendment) Act, 2008 (9 of 2009) shall be deemed to have become members of such District Co-operative Bank and the share amount, if any, of such society transferred to suspense account shall be deemed to be the share amount in respect of the said society;

(b) the nominal or associate member admitted after the commencement of the Kerala Co-operative Societies (Amendment) Act, 2008 (9 of 2009) shall cease to be the members of the District Co-operative Bank and shall apply for membership in the District Co-operative Bank afresh;

(c) the committee in office of the District Co-operative Bank at such commencement shall cease to exist and the Registrar shall be competent to appoint a new committee or one or more administrator or administrators who need not be members of the society, to manage the affairs of the Bank for a period not exceeding six months, as may be specified in the order, which period may, at the discretion of the Registrar, be extended from time to time, so however, that the aggregate period does not exceed one year.

(2) The committee or the administrator or the administrators appointed under sub-section (1) shall, subject to the control of the Registrar and to such instructions as he may, from time to time give, have the power to exercise the powers and perform the functions of the committee or of any officer of the society and take such action as may be required in the interest of the society.

(3) The committee or the administrator or the administrators shall before the expiry of its or his or their term of office, arrange for the constitution of a new committee in accordance with the provisions contained in the principal Act and the bye-laws of the Bank.

6. Repeal and Saving.—(1) The Kerala Co-operative Societies (Amendment) Ordinance, 2012 (26 of 2012) is hereby repealed.

(2) Notwithstanding such repeal, anything done or deemed to have been done or any action taken or deemed to have been taken under the principal Act as amended by the said Ordinance shall be deemed to have been done or taken under the principal Act, as amended by this Act.
