Alteration of Rent on Alteration of Area.

28. Alteration of rent on alteration of area - (1) Every tenant shall-

(a) be liable to pay additional rent for all land proved to be in excess of the area for which rent has been previously paid by him, unless it is proved that the excess is due to the addition to his tenancy of land which having previously belonged to the tenancy. Was lost by diluvion or otherwise without any reduction of the rent being made; and

(b) be entitled to an abatement of rent in respect of any deficiency proved to exist in the area of his tenancy as compared with the paid by him, unless it is proved that the deficiency is due to the loss of land which was added to the area of the tenancy by alluvion or otherwise, and that an addition has not been made to the rent in respect of the addition to the area.

¹Sub-section (5) added by Punjab Act 11 of 1925 was omitted by the India Adaptation of Existing Indian Laws Order, 1947, section 4(I).

²Sub-section 27-A together with the heading omitted by the India (Adaptation of Existing Indian Laws) Order, 1947, section 4(I)

(2) In determining the area for which rent has been previously paid the Court shall have regard to the following among other matters, namely :-

(a) the origin and conditions of the tenants' occupancy for instance whether the rent was a rent in gross for the entire tenancy;

(b) whether the tenant has been allowed to hold additional land in consideration of an addition to his total rent or otherwise with the knowledge and consent of the landlord; and

(c) the length of time during which there has been no dispute as to rent or area.

(3) In addition to or abating rent under this section, the Court shall add to or abate the rent to such an amount as it deems to be fair and equitable, and shall specify in its decree the date on and from which the addition or abatement is to take effect.

(4) An addition to or abatement of rent under this section shall not be deemed an enhancement or reduction of rent within the meaning of this Act.

Remission

29. Remission of rent by Courts decreeing arrears -Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing sections of this Chapter, if it appears to a Court making a decree for an arrear of rent that the area of a tenancy has been so diminished by diluvion or otherwise, or that the produce thereof has been so diminished by drought, hail, deposit of sand or other like calamity, that the full amount of rent payable by the tenant cannot be equitably decreed, the Court may, with the previous sanction of the Collector; allow such remission from the rent payable by the tenant as may appear to it to be just.

30. Remission and suspension of rent consequent on like treatment of land revenue¹[(1)]

Wherever the payment of the whole or any part of the land revenue payable in respect of any land is remitted or suspended, a Revenue-officer may, if the rent be payable in cash or be rent payable in kind of which the amount is fixed, by order, remit or suspend, as the case may be, the payment of the rent of that land to an amount which may bear the same proportion to the whole of the rent payable in respect of the land as the land-revenue of which payment has been remitted or suspended bears to the whole of the land-revenue payable in respect of the land :

Provided that in case of an occupancy-tenant, whose rent is of the nature hereinbefore in this sub-section described, the remission or suspension of the land-revenue payable in respect of the land shall, in the absence of a written order by a Revenue-officer to the contrary carry with it a proportionate remission or suspension, as the case may be, of his rent.

When the payment of the rent of any kind has been suspended under this clause it shall remain under suspension until the Collector orders the revenue of that land to be realized.]

(2) An order passed under sub-section (1) shall not be liable to be contested by suit in any Court.

(3) A suit shall not lie for the recovery of any rent of which the payment has been remitted, or during the period of suspension, of any rent of which the payment has been suspended.

(4) where the payment of rent has been suspended the period during which the suspension has continued shall be excluded in the computation of the period of limitation prescribed for a suit for the recovery of the rent.

¹[(5) If the landlord collects from a tenant any rent of which the payment has been remitted, or is under suspension, the Revenue-officer may recover from the landlord the amount or value of the rent so collected, and may also recover by way of penalty a further sum not exceeding such amount or value, and may cause to be refunded to the tenant the amount or value of the rent so collected from him.]

(6) The provisions of this section relating to the remission and suspension of the payment of rent may be applied, so far as they can be made applicable, to land if which the land-revenue has been released, compounded for or redeemed in any case in which, if the land-revenue in respect of the land had not been released, compounded for or redeemed, the whole or any part of it might in the opinion of the Revenue-officer, be remitted or suspended under the rules for the time being in force regulating the remission and suspension of land-revenue.

¹[(7) Any sum of which the recovery is ordered under sub-section (5) on account of rent or penalty may be recovered by the Collector as if it were an arrear of land-revenue.]

Deposits.

31. Power to deposit rent in certain cases with Revenue-officer- In either of the following cases, namely :-

(a) when a landlord refuses to receive, or grant a receipt for, any rent payable in money when tendered to him by a tenant;

(b) when a tenant is in doubt as to the person entitled to receive rent payable in money;

the tenant may apply to a Revenue-officer for leave to deposit the rent in his office, and the Revenue-officer shall receive the deposit if, after examining the applicant, he is satisfied that there is sufficient ground for the application and if the applicant pays the fee, if any, chargeable for the issue of the notice next hereinafter referred to.

32. Effect of depositing rent -(1) When a deposit has been so received it shall be deemed to be a payment made by the tenant to his landlord in respect of rent due.

(2) the revenue-officer receiving the deposit shall give notice of the receipt thereof to every person who he has reason to believe claims or is entitled to the deposit, and may pay the amount thereof to any person, appearing to him to be entitled thereto, or may, if he thinks fit, retain the deposit pending the decision of a competent Court as to the person so entitled.

(3) No suit or other proceeding shall be instituted against the ²[Government[, or against any officer of the ²[Government] in respect of anything done by a Revenue-officer under this section, but nothing in this sub-section shall prevent any person entitled to receive the amount of any such deposit from recovering it from a person to whom it has been paid by a Revenue-officer.

Recovery of rent from attached Produce.

33. Recovery of rent from attached produce - (1) If an order is made by any Court for the attachment of the produce of a tenancy or of any part of a tenancy, the landlord may apply to the Revenue-officer by whom the attachment is to be or has been made to sell the produce and pay to him out of the proceeds of the sale thereof the amount or value of-

- (a) any rent which has fallen due to him in respect of the tenancy within the year immediately preceding the application, and
- (b) the rent which will be falling due after the harvesting of the produce and is chargeable against it.

(2) The Revenue-officer shall give the person at whose instance the attachment was made an opportunity of showing cause why the application of the landlord should not be granted, and, if he finds the landlord's claim to the whole or any part of the rent to be proved he shall cause the produce or such portion thereof as he may deem necessary to be sold, and shall apply the proceeds of the sale in the first instance to satisfy the claim.

(3) the finding of the Revenue-officer under sub-section (2) shall have the force, of a decree in a suit between the landlord and the tenant.

Leases for period exceeding term of Assessment of Land-revenue.

34. Treatment of leases for period exceeding or equal to term of assessment of land-revenue.

(1) Where a lease has been granted, or an agreement has been entered into, by a landowner in respect of any land assessed to land-revenue fixing for a period exceeding the term for which the land-revenue has been assessed the rent or other sum payable in respect of the land under the lease or agreement, and that term has expired, the lease or agreement shall be voidable-

- (a) at the option of the landowner if the land revenue of the land has been enhanced and the person to whom the lease has been granted or with whom the agreement has been entered into refuses to pay such rent or other sum as a Revenue Court, on the suit of the land-owner, determines to be fair and equitable [* * 1 * *]; and where the relation of landlord and tenant exists between the grantor and grantee of the lease or between the persons who entered into the agreement-

(b) at the option of the tenant if the land-revenue of the land has been reduced and the landlord refuses to accept such rent as a Revenue Court, on the suit of the tenant, determines to be fair and equitable [* * * * 1 * * * *].

(2) Any agreement relative to the occupation, rent profits or produce of any land which has been entered into for the term of the currency of an assessment shall, unless a contrary intention clearly appears in the agreement or the agreement is terminated by consent of parties or course of law, continue in force until a revised assessment takes effect.

CHAPTER IV

RELINQUISHMENT, ABANDONMENT AND EJECTMENT

Relinquishment.

35. Relinquishment by tenant for fixed term A tenant holding for a fixed term under a contract or a decree or order of competent authority may relinquish his tenancy without notice at the end of that term.

36. Relinquishment by any other tenant (1) Any other tenant may relinquish his tenancy by giving verbally or in writing to his landlord, or to his landlord's agent, on or before the fifteenth day of January in any year, notice of his intention to relinquish the tenancy at the end of the agricultural year then current.

(2) the tenant may, instead of, or in addition to giving the notice in the manner mentioned in sub-section (1), apply to a Revenue-officer on or before the date aforesaid to cause the notice to be served on the landlord, and the Revenue-officer on receiving the cost of service from the tenant; shall cause the notice to be served as soon as may be.

(3) If the tenant does not give notice in the manner prescribed in this section, he shall be liable to pay the rent of his tenancy for any part of the ensuing agricultural year during which the tenancy is not let by the landlord to some other person or is not cultivated by the landlord himself.

37. Relinquishment of part only of tenancy - A tenant cannot, without the consent of his landlord, relinquish a part only of his tenancy.

Abandonment

38. Abandonment of tenancy by occupancy tenant- (1) If a tenant having a right of occupancy fails for more than one year without sufficient cause to cultivate his tenancy either by himself or some other person, and to arrange for payment of the rent thereof as it falls due, the right of occupancy shall be extinguished from the end of that year.

Ejectment

LIABILITY TO EJECTMENT

39. Grounds of ejectment of occupancy tenant - (1) A tenant having a right of occupancy shall be liable to be ejected from his tenancy on any of the following grounds, namely :-

(a) that he has used the land comprised in the tenancy in a manner which renders it unfit for the purposes for which he held it;

(b) where rent is payable in kind, that he has without sufficient cause failed to cultivate that land in the manner or to the extent customary in the locality in which the land is situate;

(c) when a decree for and arrear of rent in respect of his tenancy has been passed against him and remains unsatisfied.

40. Grounds of ejectment of tenant for a fixed term-A tenant not having a right of occupancy by holding for a fixed term under a contract or a decree or order of competent authority, shall be liable to be ejected from his tenancy at the expiration of that term, and, on any of the following grounds, before the expiration thereof, namely :-

- (a) that he has used the land comprised in the tenancy in a manner which renders it unfit for the purposes for which he held it ;
- (b) where rent is payable in kind, that he has without sufficient cause failed to cultivate that land in the manner or to the extent customary in the locality in which the land is situate;
- (c) on any ground which would justify ejectment under the contract, decree or order.

41. Ejectment of tenant from year to year -A tenant who has not a right of occupancy and does not hold for a fixed term under a contract or a decree or order of competent authority, may be ejected at the end of any agricultural year.

PROCEDURE ON EJECTMENT

42. Restriction on ejectment – A tenant shall not be ejected otherwise than in execution of a decree for ejectment, except in the following cases, namely :-

- (a) when a decree for an arrear of rent in respect of his tenancy has been passed against him and remains unsatisfied;
 - (b) when a tenant has not a right of occupancy and does not hold for a fixed term under a contract or a decree or order of competent authority.

¹ Omitted by the India (Adaptation of Existing Laws) Order, 1947.

43. Application to Revenue-officer for ejectment -In any such case as is mentioned in clause (a) or clause (b) of the last foregoing section the landlord may apply to a Revenue-officer for the ejectment of the tenant in the case mentioned in the former clause or for the service on the tenant of the tenant of a notice of ejectment in the case mentioned in the latter clause.

44. Ejectment for failure to satisfy decree for arrear of rent- (1) On receiving the application in any such case as is mentioned in clause (a) of section 42, the Revenue-officer shall, after such inquiry with respect to the existence of the arrear as he deems necessary, cause a notice to be served on the tenant stating the date of the decree and the amount due there under, and informing his that if he does not pay that amount to the Revenue-officer within fifteen days from receipt of the notice he will be ejected from the land.

(2) If the amount is not so paid the Revenue-officer shall, subject to the provisions of this Act with respect to the payment of compensation, order the ejectment of the tenant unless good cause is shown to the contrary.

45. Ejectment of tenant from year to year by notice- (1) On receiving the application of the landlord in any such case as is mentioned in clause (b) of section 42, the Revenue-officer shall, if the application is in order and not open to objection on the face of it, cause a notice of ejectment to be served on the tenant.

(2) A notice under sub-section (1) shall not be served after the fifteenth day of November in any ¹[agricultural] year.

(3) The notice shall specify the name of the landlord on whose application it is issued and describe the land to which it relates, and shall inform the tenant that he must vacate the land before the first day of May next following, or that if he intends to contest his liability to ejectment, he must institute a suit for that purpose in a Revenue Court within two months from the date of the service of the notice.

(4) The notice shall also inform the tenant that if he does not intend to contest his liability to be ejected and he has any claim for compensation on ejectment, he should within two months from the date of the service of the notice prefer his claim to the Revenue-officer having authority under the next following sub-section to order his ejectment in the circumstances described in that sub-section.

¹Inserted by the Amending Act, 1891 (XII of 1891).

(5) If within two months from the date of the service of the notice the tenant does not institute a suit to contest his liability to be ejected a Revenue-officer, on the application of the landlord shall, subject to the provisions of this Act with respect to the payment of compensation, order the ejectment of the tenant :

Provided that the Revenue-officer shall not make the order until he is satisfied that the notice was duly served on the tenant.

(6) If within those two months the tenant institutes a suit to contest his liability to be ejected and fails in the suit, the Court by which the suit is determined shall by its decree direct the ejectment of the tenant.

CHAPTER VI.
IMPROVEMENTS AND COMPENSATION.

Improvement by Landlords.

61. Improvements by landlords on tenancies of occupancy tenants - (1) Without the previous permission of the Collector, a landlord shall not improvement on the tenancy of a tenant having a right of occupancy.

(2) If a landlord desires to make such an improvement he may apply to the Collector for permission to make it and the Collector shall before making an order on the application, hear the objection, if any, of the tenant.

(3) In making an order on an application under sub-section (2) the Collector shall be guided by such rules if any as the ¹[State] Government may, * * 2 * * * *, make in this behalf.

62. Enhancement of rent in consideration of an improvement made by a landlord on the tenancy of an occupancy tenant - (1) When a landlord has with the permission mentioned in the last foregoing section, made an improvement on the tenancy of a tenant having a right of occupancy he may apply to the Collector fir an enhancement of the rent of the tenant.

(2) If the tenant is a tenant to whom section 20 applies the Collector shall enhance his rent to the share or rates or with reference to the rent in gross as the case may be paid by tenants having a similar right of occupancy for land of a similar description and with similar advantages.

² The words "with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council" were repealed by the Decentralization Act, 1914 (4 of 1914).

(3) If the tenant is a tenant to whom section 22 applies the Collector shall enhance his rent to such amount as the tenant would be liable to pay under that section if the land-revenue were reassessed.

(4) When the improvement ceases to exist, the Collector may, on the application of the tenant, reduce the tenant's rent,-

- (a) in the case of a tenant to whom sub-section (2) applies to share or rates, or with reference to the rent in gross as the case may be paid by tenants having a similar right of occupancy for land of a similar description and with similar advantages; and
- (b) in the case of a tenant to whom sub-section (3) applies to such an amount as the tenant would be liable to pay if the land revenue were re-assessed.

(5) Section 25 and 26 shall be construed as applying to an application under this section and a suit shall not lie in any Court for any purpose for which an application might be made under this section.

Improvements by Tenants.

63. Title of occupancy tenant to make improvements - A tenant having a right of occupancy is entitled to make improvements on his tenancy.

64. Title of tenants not having right of occupancy to make improvements - (1) A tenant not having a right of occupancy may make improvements on his tenancy with the assent of his landlord.

(2) If at any time the question arises whether or not the landlord assented to the making of an improvement by a tenant not having a right of occupancy the assent may be inferred from circumstances.

65. Improvements made before commencement of this Act - Improvement made by a tenant before the commencement of this Act shall be deemed to have been made in accordance with this Act, unless in the case of a tenant not having a right of occupancy it is shown that the improvement was made in contravention of a written agreement between him and his landlord.

66. Improvements begun in anticipation of ejectment - A tenant ejected in execution of a decree or in pursuance of a notice of a notice of ejectment shall not be entitled to compensation for any improvement begun by him, after the institution of the suit or service of the notice which resulted in his ejection.

67. Tender of lease for twenty years to tenant to be a bar to right to compensation - If a landlord tenders to a tenant a lease of his tenancy for a term of not less than twenty years from the date of the tender at the rent then paid by the tenant or at such other rent as may be agreed on the tender if accepted by the tenant shall bar any claim by him to compensation in respect of improvements previously made on the tenancy.

68. Liability to pay compensation for improvements to tenants on ejection or on enhancement of his rent - Subject to the foregoing provisions of this Chapter a tenant who has made an improvement on his tenancy in accordance with this Act shall not be ejected, and the rent payable by him shall not be enhanced, until he has received compensation for the improvement.

Compensation for Disturbance of Clearing

69. Compensation for disturbance of clearing tenants - (1) A tenant who has cleared and brought under cultivation waste-land in which he has not a right of occupancy shall if ejected from that land be entitled to receive from the landlord as compensation for disturbance in addition to any compensation for improvements a sum to be determined by a Revenue Court or Revenue-officer in accordance with the merits of the case but not exceeding five year's rent of the land : Provided that a tenant who is a joint owner of land to which this section applies shall not be entitled to compensation for disturbance on ejection from the land or any part thereof.

(2) If rent has been paid for the land by division or appraisal of the produce or by rates fixed with reference to the nature of the crops grown, or if not rent, or no rent other than the land-revenue of the land and the rates and cesses chargeable thereon, has been paid therefor, the compensation may be computed as if double the amount of the land-revenue of the land were the annual rent thereof.

¹[Provided that in any estate of which the assessment has been confirmed on or after the twenty-second day of February, 1929, the compensation may be computed as if four times the amount of the land were the annual rent thereof].

Procedure in determining Compensation

70. Determination of compensation by Revenue Courts - (1) In every suit by a tenant to contest his liability to ejectment or by a landlord to eject a tenant or to enhance his rent the Court shall direct the tenant to file a statement of his claim, if any, to compensation for improvements or for disturbance and of the grounds thereof.

(2) If the Court decrees the ejectment of the tenant or the enhancement of his rent it shall determine the amount of compensation if any, due to the tenant and shall stay execution of the decree until the landlord pays into Court that amount less any arrears of rent or costs proved to the satisfaction of the Court to be due to him from the tenant.

71. Determination of compensation by Revenue officers - In either of the following cases, namely-

- (a) when a notice has been served on a tenant under section 44;
 - (b) when a notice of ejectment has been served on a tenant under section 45 and the tenant has not instituted a suit to contest his liability to be ejected, the tenant may apply to the Revenue-officer having authority to order his ejectment under section 44 or section 45, as the case may be, to determine the amount of compensation due to him for improvements or for disturbance of for both and the Revenue-officer shall determine the amount if any, accordingly and stay the ejectment of the tenant until the landlord pays to the Revenue-officer then amount so determined less any arrears of rent or costs proved to the satisfaction of the Revenue-officer to be due to the landlord from the tenant.

72. Matters to be regarded in assessment of compensation for improvements - In estimating the compensation to be awarded under this Chapter to a tenant for an improvement, the Court or Revenue-officer shall have regard to-

- (a) the amount by which the value or the produce of the tenancy, or the value of that produce is increased by the improvement;
- (b) the condition of the improvement and the probable duration of its effects;
- (c) the labour and capital required for the making of such an improvement;

- (d) any reduction or remission of rent or other advantage allowed to the tenant by the landlord in consideration of the improvement; and
- (e) in the case of a reclamation or of the conversion of unirrigated into irrigated land the length of time during which the tenant has had the benefit of the improvement.

73. Form of compensation - (1) the compensation shall be made by payment in money, unless the parties agree that it be made in whole or in part by the grant of a beneficial lease of land or in some other way.

(2) If the parties so agree, the Court or Revenue-officer shall, make an order accordingly.

Relief in case of ejectment before the Determination of Compensation.

74. Relief in case of ejectment before determination of compensation -(1) If from any cause the amount of compensation payable to a tenant-

- (a) under this Chapter for improvements or disturbance, or
- (b) under section 49 for the value of uncut or ungathered crops or the preparation of land for sowing, has not been determined before the tenant is ejected, the ejectment shall not be invalidated by reason of the omission, but the Court or Revenue-officer which decreed or who ordered the ejectment may, on application made by the tenant within one year from the date of the ejectment, correct the omission by making in favour of the tenant an order for the payment to him by the landlord of such compensation as the Court or officer may determine the tenant to be entitled to.

(2) An order made under sub-section (1) may be executed in the same manner as a decree for money may be executed by a Revenue Court.
