with the permission in writing of the Forest-settlement-officer.

8. The Forest-settlement-officer shall take down in writing all statements made under section 6, and shall inquire into all claims made under that section, recording the evidence in the manner prescribed by the Code of Civil Procedure¹ in appealable cases.

Inquiry by Forest settlement officer

The Forest-settlement-officer shall at the same time consider and record any objection which the Forest-officer (if any) appointed under section 4 may make to any such claim.

9. For the purpose of such inquiry the Forest-settlement-officer may exercise the following powers (that is to say):-

Powers of Forest settlement officer

- (a) power to enter, by himself or any officer authorized by him for the purpose, upon any land, and to survey, demarcate and make a map of the same; and
- (b) the powers conferred on a Civil Court by the Code of Civil Procedure¹ for compelling the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents.

10. In the case of a claim to a right in or over any land other than the following rights:-

Claims to rights of occupancy and ownership.

- (a) a right of way;
- (b) a right to a water-course, or to use of water;
- (c) a right of pasture; or
- (d) a right to forest-produce;

the Forest-settlement-officer shall pass an order specifying the particulars of such claim and admitting or rejecting the same wholly or in part.

Admitted claims

i. If such claim is admitted wholly or in part, the Forest-settlement-officer may

(1) come to an agreement with the claimant for the surrender of the right; or (2) exclude the land from the limits of the proposed forests; or (3) proceed to acquire such land in the manner provided by the Land Acquisition Act, 1870¹.

For the purpose of so acquiring such land-

(i) the Forest-settlement-officer shall be deemed to be a Collector proceeding under the Land Acquisition Act, 1870¹;

1. Now Act 1 of 1894.

(ii) the claimant shall be deemed to be a person interested and appearing before him in pursuance of a notice given under section 9 of that Act;

(iii) the provisions of the preceding sections of that Act shall be deemed to have been complied with; and

(iv) the Forest-settlement-officer with the consent of the claimant, or the Court (as defined in the said Act) with the consent of the claimant and of the Collector of the district, may award compensation by the grant of right in or over land, or by the payment of money, or both.

ii. If such claim is rejected wholly or in part, Rejected the claimant may, date of the order, prefer an appeal to the District Court in respect of such rejection only: Provided that the ¹[Government] may, on just and reasonable cause for the same being shown, extend the period for such appeal within such further period as may seem proper, and an order or endorsement under the signature of one of the Secretaries to Government shall be sufficient authority for the said Court to entertain such specified. If the Court decides that the claim or such part thereof as has been rejected should be admitted, the Forest-settlement-officer shall proceed to deal with it in like manner as if it had been in the first instance admitted by himself.

Rejected claims – Appeals.

iii. When a claim has been admitted in the first instance wholly or in part, a like appeal may be preferred on behalf of Government by the Forest- officer appointed under section 4, or other person generally or specially empowered by the Government in this behalf.

of way, water-
course, pasture, and to forest-

11. In the case of a claim to rights of the kind specified in clauses (a), (b), (c) and (d) of section 10, the Forest-settlement-officer shall pass an order specifying the particulars of such claim as far as may be necessary to define the nature, incidents and extent of the rights claimed, and admitting or rejecting such claim wholly or in part.

When a claim to any such right is admitted, if the right is for the beneficial enjoyment of any land or buildings, he shall record the designation, position and area of such land, and the designation and position of such buildings.

Where the right is a right to forest-produce, he shall also record whether the forest-produce obtained by the exercise of such right may be sold or bartered.

12. When the Forest-settlement-officer has admitted wholly or in part, and recorded under section 11, a claim to a right of pasture or to forest-produce, he shall, as far as possible, provide for the exercise of such right-

Provision for rights of pasture or to forest-produce admitted.

(a) by altering the limits of the proposed reserved forest so as to exclude land of sufficient extent, of a suitable kind, and in a locality reasonably convenient for the purposes of the claimant;

(b) by recording an order continuing to the claimant s right of pasture or to forest-produce (as the case may be), subject to such rules as may be prescribed by the ¹[Government].

The order passed under clause (b) shall record, as far as practicable, the number and description of the cattle which the claimant is from time to time entitled to graze, the local limits within which, and the seasons during which, such pasture is permitted; or the quantity of timber or other forest-produce which the claimant is authorized to take or receive, the local limits within which, the season during which, and the mode in which, the taking of such produce is permitted; and such other particulars as may be required in order to define the extent of the right which is continued, and the mode in which it may be exercised.

Commutation of such rights.

13. Whenever any right of pasture or to forest-produce admitted under section 11 is not provided for in one of the ways prescribed in section 12, the Forest- settlement-officer shall, subject to such rules as the Government may prescribe in this behalf, commute such right by paying a sum of money in lieu thereof, or, with the consent of the claimant, by the grant of rights in or over land or in such other manner as such officer thinks fit,

14. The claimant, or the Forest-officer appointed under section
